

Helping to grow a more resilient community and low carbon economy			1- 8 October 2024
Our Focus	Projects	Resources	Note
Collaboration and community engagement	We actively collaborate with other community groups and volunteers to enhance service capability and resourcing	SHASA Executive	SHASA 10 Years On 2014-2014 Anniversary Celebration. Moruya Surf Club November 1st 4pm-9pm. Communications team is organising. Steve Colman to send out invite to mailchimp list once tile is finalised. RSVP no later than 15 October. Send to contact.shasa@gmail.com. Eurobodalla Community Support Network Meeting 3 October 9.45 am. Kathryn Maxwell, Andrea Charlton and Andrew Everard attending.
	We run the Repair Cafe to engage with the community, build skills, resilience and reduce waste to landfill	Charlie Bell (Coordinator)	Repair Cafe every Friday 9.30am - 12.30pm at the Red Door Hall.
	We actively partner with businesses for a resilient community and low-carbon economy.	Kathryn Maxwell, Steve Colman	Investor Group on Climate Change - journalist will be contacting Kathryn Maxwell for an interview on SHASA's projects and activities.
	We seek to broaden our membership, volunteer work and project focus to recognise our diverse community	SHASA Executive	Kathryn Maxwell meeting one on one with new volunteers or people interested in becoming active volunteers.

	We rely on the commitment, goodwill and capability of our volunteers and grow them through mentoring, coaching, positive experiences, social events and training.	SHASA Executive	Next members meeting is on Thursday 24 October 11am - 12.15pm.
	We keep our community informed through our regular newsletters, website and Social Media.	Communications Committee: Lyn Smith, Natalie Barnett, Kat McCarthy, Kathryn Maxwell, , Andrea Charlton	Send Facebook content to Lyn Smith. Send website content to Natalie. Communications Team to finalise newsletter by 4 October. Andrea Charlton to draft a hardcopy newsletter circulation list and store on the google drive. Jo Maclean and Kathryn Maxwell to work on flyer for renters on how to reduce energy costs in the home.
Creating a more resilient and	We engage in projects that deliver renewable energy, solar install programs, batteries on community facilities, and support local development of renewable power generation, batteries and energy-efficient appliances.	Kate Taylor, Tony Lowe, Andrea Charlton, Andrew Everard, Arno Schaaf Kathryn Maxwell, Phil Shorten, Rob Shorroch, Arno Schaaf, Arn Sprogis, Lyn Smith	Community Energy Committee meeting Thursday 3rd October at Maltman Bodalla 12noon - 2pm - key issues post SURF microgrids work and Eurobodalla Hospital large scale solar.
	We promote the transition to Electrifying everything - electric vehicles and EV charger networks, electric public transport, cycling and walking.	SHASA EV and Electrify Everything Committee -	Euro BEV get together Sunday 17 at Batehaven for lunch at Foodmandu Restaurant and Bar. Ulludulla Mini EV Expo at markets 10 November 8am - 12 noon. Andrea Charlton and Lyn Smith working on marketing materials with John Clark from Repower Shoalhaven.

resilient and healthy community	We support and help develop heatwave and bushfire smoke havens	Kate Taylor, Arno Schaaf, Kathryn Maxwell, Andrea Charlton, Andrew Everard, Pete Phillips, Stephanie Chui, Tony Lowe, Thomas Schild	Moruya Surf Lifesaving Club Haven official opening Tuesday 29 October 10am. Michael Holland to open.. Southern Life Church Bushfire Haven - Kathryn Maxwell to prepare draft application for funding for the NSW Infrastructure Grants Program (closes 25 Nov). Tilba Halls Project date of completion is June 2025. Steve Colman and Kathryn Maxwell to sign contracts with builder. Kate Taylor finalising report for the Uniting Church Catalina. Thomas Schild working on operational plan with CWA Moruya and Uniting Church Catalina. Lyn working with Lisa Friebe on developing a public map of havens. First draft provided by Lisa. Lyn and Kathryn to Review.
	We promote regional food security and partner with other organisations to facilitate food delivery to those in need.	Kathryn Maxwell, Marjolein Kromholt, Ray Howell, Bryce, Glenn, Wendy, Helen and Janine
Advocacy and Information	We inform and advocate to all levels of government on the climate crisis, renewables, electric transport and social justice	SHASA Executive	Michael Holland to organise meeting between SHASA and Jihab Dib, NSW Minister for Emergency Services.
Governance	Improve SHASA's internal procedures and policies	Patrick Guinness, Andrew Everard, Kathryn Maxwell, Tony Lowe, Pete Phillips, Thomas Schild, Su Kearns	Su Kerns developing privacy policy. Executive Meeting Wednesday 2 October - update the strategic plan