

 <h1>SHASA</h1> Southcoast Health and Sustainability Alliance		28 October to 4 November
Our Focus	Projects	Resources	Note
Collaboration and community engagement	We actively collaborate with other community groups and volunteers to enhance service capability and resourcing	SHASA Executive	10th anniversary: 10th Anniversary party Friday 1 November. Steve to share updated running sheet with attendees. KM will bring the data projector from the church, Steve will bring a projection screen. KM to consider a book prize for M Holland and others. Tim Winton's new fiction? Andrea will select some photos and send them to Steve, and make her PPT slides with apologies from non attendees by Sunday PM. Lyn has ordered decorative cake with Bodalla Bakery. Pick up Nov 1 from Gundry Bakery Moruya . Steve to print 60 copies of the Oct/Nov SHASA newsletter. Eurobodalla Community Support Network update. Funding for a part time coordinator has been secured from FRRR. Applicants have 2 weeks to apply. Andrew reminded the meeting that the process of selection must be documented to comply with governance requirements. Next Network meeting is on 29 November. Lyn to talk to Deb re stickers. Next meeting of communications committee mid November TBA week of 11-15 November.
	We run the Repair Cafe to engage with the community, build skills, resilience and reduce waste to landfill	Charlie Bell (Coordinator)	Repair Cafe every Friday 9.30am - 12.30pm at the Red Door Hall.

	We keep our community informed through our regular newsletters, website and Social Media.	Communications Committee: Lyn Smith, Natalie Barnett, Kat McCarthy, Kathryn Maxwell, , Andrea Charlton	Send Facebook content to Lyn Smith. Send website content to Natalie. Andrea Charlton to draft a hardcopy newsletter circulation list and store on the google dirve. Jo Maclean and Kathryn Maxwell to work on flyer for renters on how to reduce energy costs in the home. Energy Team has requested articles be written for Moruya Mail on a)benefits of solar carparks b) carpark solar for hospital c) monitoring your power usage to have $s, benefits and pitfalls of time of use tariffs, addressing mis information about solar farms.
Creating a more resilient and healthy community	Renewable Energy	Energy Team - Phil Shorten, Rob Shorroch, Arno Schaaf, Andrew Everard, Andrea Charlton, Lyn Smith	Moruya Hospital. Arno, Rob and Kathryn to prepare follow up information for Kristy McBain. Kathryn to send package to Kirsty. Microgrids post SURF - Phil Shorten to seek letters of support from land owners/leaseholders for a potential solar farm. Need to see a community group established in each community to drive the project. Models in Victoria and Cobargo. Rob Shorroch to provide PS with contact details for Flow Power. AC ti shiare the article about biodiversity benefits of solar panels. Aiming to seek grant funding in November to further develop proposals for Bodalla and Tilba. PS to articulate what help he requires, once the required letters are in hand. PS and AS to meet with CEO of Banksia to progress solar/battery project. NSW Government Consumer Energy Strategy - Jumpleads has developed a proposal to promote initiatives to households and small businesses and give to Michael Holland for Penny Sharpe to consider. Communications committee has until Tuesday 29 October to provide comments on draft.
	We promote the transition to Electrifying everything - electric vehicles and EV charger networks, electric public transport, cycling and walking.	SHASA EV and Electrify Everything Committee -	Transport Meeting Tuesday 29 October. Euro BEV get together Sunday 17 November at Batehaven for lunch at Foodmandu Restaurant and Bar.Lyn to make EuroBev tile for newsletter and advertising in MM Ulludulla Mini EV Expo at markets 10 November 8am - 12 noon. Andrea Charlton and Lyn Smith working on marketing materials with John Clark from Repower Shoalhaven. SHASA to take names of people who want to do a test drive at a later date.

	We support and help develop heatwave and bushfire smoke havens	Kate Taylor, Arno Schaaf, Kathryn Maxwell, Andrea Charlton, Andrew Everard, Pete Phillips, Stephanie Chui, Tony Lowe, Thomas Schild	1. Heatwave Haven opening Moruya Heads SLSC on 29 October (Tuesday) Set dressing and tech run through from 9AM. Sharon Winslade on behalf of Michael Holland will open the Haven. KM to be interviewed on EAR FM at 9am Monday (approx) re opening. Andrea and Lyn will provide sammies. RSVPs include Frank Ross, Andrea Charlton, Annie Clarke, Alex Rae, Lyn Smith, Kathryn Maxwell, Thomas Schild, Matthew Thomas, Colleen Turner, Careen and Alan Leslie. 2. Southern Life Church Bushfire Haven - Kathryn Maxwell to prepare draft application for funding for the NSW Infrastructure Grants Program (closes 25 Nov). disaster preparedness. 3. Tilba Halls date of completion is June 2025. 4. Patrick to seek acquittal of final report from the accountant for the Uniting Church Catalina. 5. Thomas Schild working on operational plan with CWA Moruya and Uniting Church Catalina.
	We promote regional food security and partner with other organisations to facilitate food delivery to those in need.	Kathryn Maxwell, Marjolein Kromholt, Ray Howell, Bryce, Glenn, Wendy, Helen and Janine
Advocacy and Information	We inform and advocate to all levels of government on the climate crisis, renewables, electric transport and social justice	SHASA Executive	Michael Holland to organise meeting between SHASA and Jihab Dib, NSW Minister for Emergency Services. Eurobodalla Council Arno Schaaf is SHASA representatives on Council Climate Change Advisory Committee.
Governance	Improve SHASA's internal procedures and policies	Patrick Guinness, Andrew Everard, Kathryn Maxwell, Tony Lowe, Pete Phillips, Thomas Schild, Su Kearns	Su Kerns has drafted a privacy policy. Steve Colman to organise Executive meeting at the St John's commons to develop tasks for the Vision/Strategic statement. Next Governance meeting is on Tuesday 5 November